THIMUN Youth Network

TYN is a youth –run and – organized subsidiary of THIMUN that strives to facilitate and encourage youth to become aware and active, and act as responsible stakeholders, and advance a spirit of collaboration, cooperation and participation among youth through our activities and network. The Network’s main annual event is the THMUN Youth Assembly.

Other TYN activities include delegations to international conferences, such as the UN Commission on Sustainable Development (UNCSD) and International AIDS Conference, and the Summer Symposium on the role of the youth as a major stakeholder in political forums, grassroots and every level between.

Mission

THIMUN Youth Network aims to facilitate and encourage youth to become aware and active, and act as responsible stakeholders, and advance a spirit of collaboration, cooperation and participation among youth.

THIMUN Youth Assembly

The THIMUN Youth Assembly (TYA) is an annual conference that is hosted by the THIMUN Youth Network (TYN) and held during the same week as THIMUN.

TYA is an educational conference that aims to educate youth on local and global issues, while emphasising the role of the youth as a stakeholder, through thematic and project management workshops, lectures and discussions. These workshops designed and delivered by youth with experience in a relevant field, also aim to contribute to the capacity of youth to create, develop and implement community specific projects. The multi-cultural setting of our conference provides the opportunity for youth to network and learn from one another through committee discussions, participant-led presentations, informal learning and the sharing of experiences.
